Testimonial

Date: August 6, 2014

To whom it may concern,

Dr. Bandishti's seminar on "Life style Management" to employees at Lupin Research Park was very timely, relevant and informative. The session was highly interactive, with opportunities for discussion and moreover was interlaced with small but critical "gems" of suggestions entitled "Small changes -- BIG DIFFERENCES" to keep everyone fit in today's stressful world. The seminar brought the focus back on easy-to-do-things in our daily lives, with small changes in our diet leading to big benefits over time. The simplicity, relevance and accessibility of the approach make it universally applicable, promoting health as a right.

Yours faithfully,

Dr. Venkata P. Palle, Ph.D
Senior Vice President, Discovery Research
Novel Drug Discovery and Development
